

Main thought: Psalm 106 recalls much of the history of Israel. With this beginning we are reminded that the whole history of God's people is truly the history of God's work, not ours. We praise Him for His great love.

Psalm 106:1–5

Praise the LORD!

Oh give thanks to the LORD, for he is good,
for his steadfast love endures forever!

Who can utter the mighty deeds of the LORD,
or declare all his praise?

Blessed are they who observe justice,
who do righteousness at all times!

Remember me, O LORD, when you show favor to your people;
help me when you save them,

that I may look upon the prosperity of your chosen ones,
that I may rejoice in the gladness of your nation,
that I may glory with your inheritance.

Prayer

Great is Your Love, O Lord,, as You rule in justice and righteousness at all times. May we always remember Your goodness and mercy and praise You in our prosperity that we never forget that it is Your favor that sustains us. Amen.
